

Lake Geauga Youth Lead Prevention Coalition invites 8th– 12th graders to...

2017 Youth Leadership Summit

IGNITE. BELIEVE. EMPOWER.

About 20 eighth grade students attended the 2017 Youth Leadership Summit held at Auburn Career Center on Friday, February 11, 2017. They listened to several inspirational speakers and participated in breakout sessions on leadership. Here is what students had to say in their own words about the day:

I liked the speakers a lot. They were very clear with what they were trying to portray to us. -Maarika Haller	I did like Frank Kitchen and Ej because I liked how they interacted with us and made it easier to understand. -Ashley Pomplas
I really enjoyed listening to the public speakers. Ej's speech was very funny and upbeat. I found Frank to be a very inspirational person and I could listen to him talk for hours. I'm glad I got to talk to him after he spoke and I'm also glad I got to go and experience the Summit. -Maya Hess	My favorite parts were the speeches because the speakers were very funny. I also liked that we go to talk to Frank after the event. -Connor Hulett
I really did enjoy listening to Ej and Frank Kitchen. They were both very entertaining. -Nathaniel Kopp	Overall the experience was very nice and I liked the speakers. -Hayley Jarvis

Speaker Bios

EJ Carrion

EJ believes success comes down to putting in the work. He uses his funny and engaging personal story to illustrate how those who take action do, in fact, succeed. He will help students connect the dots between their hard work now and their future success and give practical tools to break through their limitations, grow their confidence.

More about EJ Carrion: <http://ejcarrion.com/>

Frank Kitchen

Frank's mission is to Educate, Elevate and Empower students, educators, volunteers, entrepreneurs, and professionals around the world to "Live FRESH." A philosophy that challenges people to be Difference Makers and Life Changers who create the positive and productive environments people desire to be a part of.

More about Frank Kitchen: <http://www.frankkitchen.com/>